MORTGAGE SALE

Whereas default has been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated November 10th, 1917 executed by Henry G. Webber and Isabell C. Webber, his wife to the First National Bank of Paw Paw, Michigan, which said mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Van Buren County in Liber 111 of Mortgages at page 15, and

Whereas the amount claimed to be due on said mortgage at the date of this notice is five hundred fifty-three and 75-100 Dollars ($553.75) principal and interest and the further sum of fifteen dollars the statutory attorney fee provided for in said mortgage which is the whole amount claimed to be due and unpaid on said mortgage and no proceedings at law or in equity having been brought to recover the amount due whereby the power of sale contained in said mortgage has become operative,

Now therefore notice is hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the mortgaged premises at public auction to the highest bidder at the north front door of the Court House in the village of Paw Paw, county of Van Buren, Michigan (that being the place of holding the Circuit Court for the County of Van Buren) on the 9th, day of August, A. D. 1919 at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, which said premises are described in said mortgage as follows, to-wit:

Commencing on the east and west quarter line of section 21 town south range 14 west 17-30 chains west of the quarter post between sections 21 and 22, thence north 26.44 chains, thence west 23.10 chains to the north and south quarter line, thence south on same 8.80 chains to the margin of lake thence south easterly on same to the east and west quarter line; thence east about 14.15 chains to the place of beginning, except ten acres off the south side. Paw Paw township Van Buren County Michigan.

Dated May 10th, 1919.

Talc Jonteel 25 cents

Perfumed with the costly new odor of twenty-six flowers...

To YOU—to women of refinement who would not use ordinary perfumes because of their coarsely assertive odors—to you comes Jonteel, this subtle, new odor of twenty-six flowers.

This individual, lingering, distinctive odor of elegance in which, at great expense, a master perfumer has blended Orange Blossoms from the Riviera—Vetiver from distant India—Sandalwood, Ylang-ylang, English Lavender—and a score of other lovely scents.
